

Family Music—Musikgarten Early Childhood Music & Movement Class (ages infant–4)

This class is designed to bring the joy of music and movement to young children and their caregivers. Activities include singing, dancing, focused listening, and simple instrument playing. Activities will connect music and movement, while developing the child's musical aptitude and listening abilities. Offered as two 8-week sessions. Each family must purchase one $40 materials packet for home use. The packet for both sessions includes a parent guide, CD, and an instrument/musical prop for home use.

$80 per 8-week session | Mondays 5:30 pm–6:15 pm | James C. Olson Performing Arts Center, room 126

Piano-Readiness Class (ages 4–6)

This class is a transition from programs such as Musikgarten to private piano lessons. Children will learn the basics of piano technique and practice, and play musical games that introduce basic musical notation and rhythm. There is a class recital at the end of each semester.

$160 per semester | Saturdays at 10:00 am–10:45 am | Grant Hall, room 105A

Roo Singers (grades 3–6)

Roo Singers foster a love of music and the development of musical skills through diverse choral literature of different eras, languages, and levels and by varied classroom and performance settings. Singers, parents, teachers, and audience members form a community of choral singing that enhances the performing arts experience for everyone involved.

$160 per semester | Tuesdays at 6:30 pm–7:15 pm | Charlotte House, room 208

Creative Movement (ages 3–5)

This class introduces your child to concepts such as creating shapes (still positions), directions, different movement (slow/fast), travelling steps, repeating simple patterns, parts of a dance (beginning, middle, end) and simple choreography. Children will have a special time each class for spontaneous dancing. There will be a recital during the last class.

$160 per semester | Saturdays at 11:30 am–12:15 pm | James C. Olson Performing Arts Center, studio 128
